MAX PULSE CERTIFICATION

After you have completed the training you are ready to take the online certification test. Click the button below to begin the test.

ONLINE CERTIFICATION TEST

On the Cert Test page, after you check the "I Agree" box for the training disclaimer, you will see a user name box and log in button. Below that it says "If you do not have an account please click here." Click on that link to create your log in information and then you can begin the online certification test. You will receive a certificate that you print out when you have passed the test and we will be notified.
